PUBLICITY 130

Excited and more than a little nervous,

I wonder what the coming year will bring

. . . old friends

. . . new friends

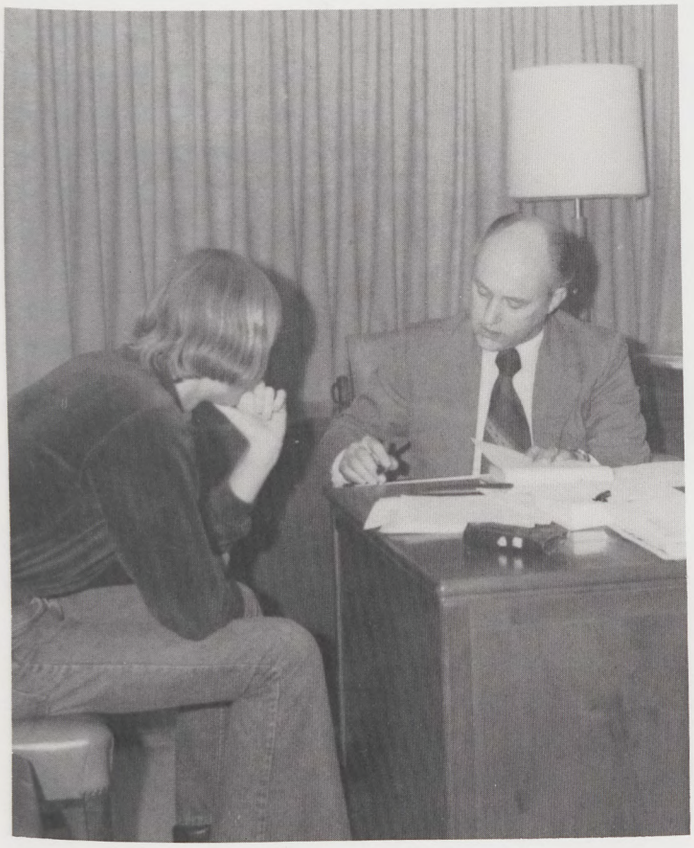

. . . new ideas

. . . changing values

. . . new experiences

. . . a chance to discover what I want to do with my life

. . . a chance to help womeone else find the path

he wants to follow

. . . hopefully this year will bring a better understanding of others and of myself.

We have so many hopes and dreams.

Will they become realities or disappointments?

The choice is ours.

We can sit back and watch the parade,

or we can become involved and grow richer for it.

There is so much we can do to help each other,

if we only dare to become involved.

If we will only look beyond ourselves

and share someone else's load,

our own will become lighter.

We must make our own decision.

PLACES

New places. Soon they will become so familiar, we will wonder what we did before we came here. These places, and the people who frequent them, will become a very important part of our lives. In years to come, we will return. Perhaps these places will only be changed. However, we will hold them in our memories forever.

I am the LIBRARY.
I am neither walls nor shelves
Nor even the books that Stand in rows.
I am the wisdom of the Universe,
Captured and arranged for you.
I am an open door—
Enter.

Simmons Library means Service. Service means providing a variety of opportunities and resources to the students, faculty and staff of Southwest Mississippi Junior College.

Simmons Library serves by providing a comfortable well lighted facility in which to study, do reference work and read for knowledge and enjoyment sixty hours each week.

It serves by providing some twenty thousand well selected books that correlate with the curricula in the academic and vocational technical areas, as well as providing for the recreational interests of students and faculty.

Simmons Library further supports the curricula and recreational reading by providing some 130 periodicals. Some fifty seven of these periodicals have been bound for the years 1958-1967.

In 1968, Simmons Library began acquiring periodicals on microfilm. The periodicals formerly bond are now available on microfilm, from 1968-1972, and may be reviewed or printed on a microfilm reader printer. Back issues for 1973-74 are located in boxes at the circulation desk. A photo copier is provided for reproducing any materials desired.

The Mary Cain Collection consists of the Mississippiana materials to aid those interested in learning more about our state. A vertical file on Mississippi is maintained for this purpose also.

A general vertical file supplies clippings on a wide variety of subjects that may be difficult to find elsewhere.

Three sound filmstrip machines aid primarily the social studies division with collateral visual and sound materials. This service is a beginning for the new learning resource center which more than multi media will be provided for all areas of the junior college program.

Service is provided through the card catalog and the various other indexes for locating library materials.

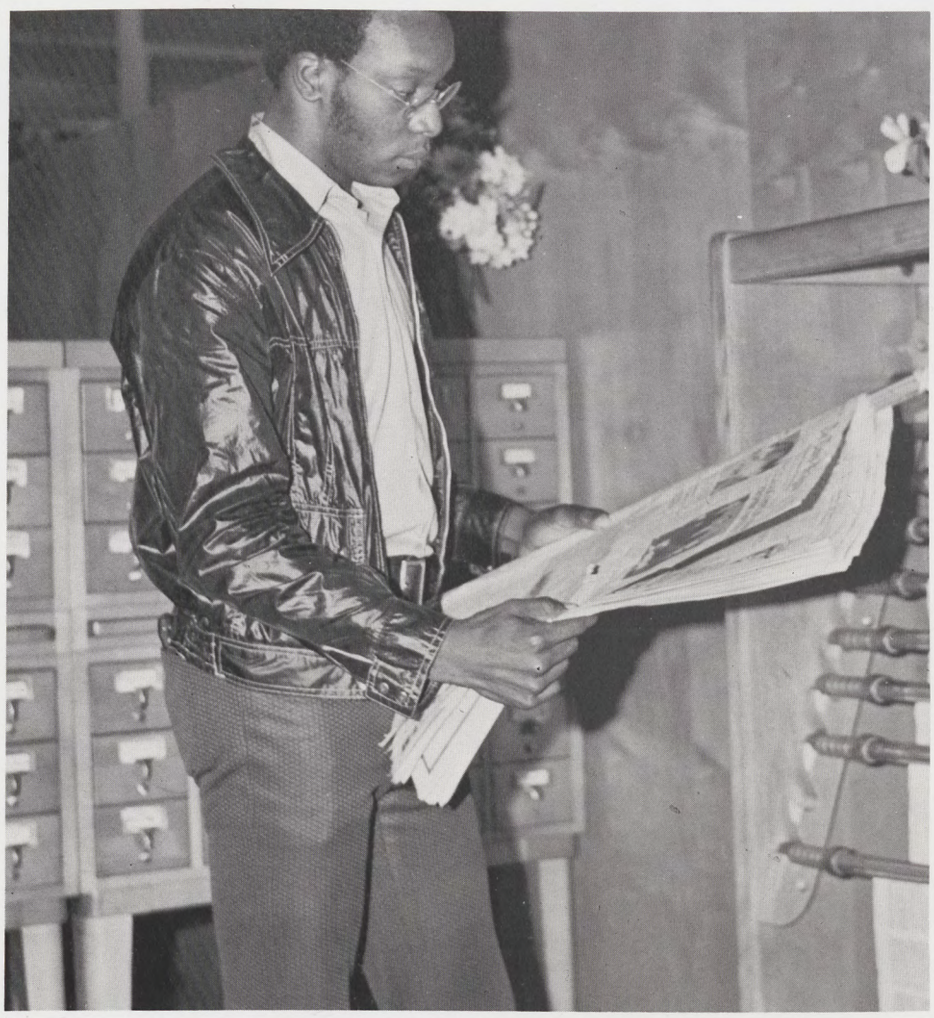

Simmons Library provides the assistance of two librarians, ten students and one senior aide. While each one has his own responsible tasks to fulfill, each is dedicated to the service of students and faculty of SMJC.

There's a lighthouse on the hillside that overlooks life's sea. When I'm tossed it sends out a light, that I might see; and the light that shines in darkness, now will safely lead us o'er. If it wasn't for the lighthouse, my ship would be no more.

CHORUS
And I thank God for the lighthouse, I owe my life to Him, For Jesus is the lighthouse, and from the rocks of sin. He has shone a light around me that I could clearly see. If it wasn't for the lighthouse, tell me, where would this ship be?

Everybody that lives about us says, tear that lighthouse down, the big ships don't sail this way anymore, there's no use of it standing around. Then my mind goes back to that stormy night, when just in the time I saw the light. Yes, the light from that old lighthouse that stands up there on the hill.

"John, do you have your article written?"

"Uh, no, I forgot all about it. When is it due?"

"Yesterday, John."

These are well known lines all editors hear frequently. And that's no exception with the Pine Burr. But miraculously everything fits barely a few minutes before copy is due at the press.

The Pine Burr is published monthly under the leadership of Mrs. Neil Craig, sponsor. The editor, chosen by Mrs. Craig, along with her staff, cover special events, all school news, and student oponions.

I would like to congradulate Meynell Wilson, right, who is editor of the Pine Burr, for the marvelous job she has done as editor.

S.M.J.C. STAGE BAND

The Stage Band of 1973-74, with it's jazz, rock, and blues, prove to be a tremendous success under the capable and inspiring leadership of Steven A. Jones. During the school year the Stage Band performed for various clubs and organizations, both in and out of the state. The Band also had the privilege of performing for the Governor of the State of Mississippi. No stage band would be complete without dancers and soloists. With Marsha Kimble, Debbie Norman, Kathy Jones, Ava Greer, and Joy Alford dancing to tunes such as Tuxedo Junction and Everything's Coming Up Roses; and Judy Fortenberry and Curtis Brewer, singing tunes like Top of the World, I've Got to be Me, My Way, and Caberet, undoubtly kept the audience spellbound. Never before has a Stage Band possessed such caliber with potential in the band, as well as it's director. Therefore, with our most humble sincerity and gratitude, we dedicate ourselves, S.M.J.C. Stage Band 1973-74, to our director, Mr. Steven A. Jones.

THE STARS OF THE SHOW

Two hours of long, hard practices everyday developed an excellent group of dancers known as the "Ladies in Red." Tryouts for the group were held at the beginning of the school year. Based on marching and dancing talent, twelve girls were selected to be a part of the "Redline" along with captain, Marsha Kimble. The Redline performed at all home football games, several out-of-town games, the Pike County Fair Parade, and four area Christmas Parades.

The Four dances for the stage band, at left, are chosen from the Redline. The music is mostly jazz and the dancing is a completely different type from the marching season. It is a rewarding challenge to get a stageband dances because the girls work together making up new routines, designing costumes, and practicing extremely hard—by Marsha Kimble.

Everyone Worked to Make the Campus More Attractive

Homecoming featured "Founders Day". Excitement and enthusiasm was felt throughout the campus. Faculty and students exemplified a spirit of cooperation that was apparent as they worked together to beautify the campus and draw attention to college life as it was in 1918 compared to college life in 1973-74.

On September 16, 1918, Mr. J.M. Kenna opened the first classes on this campus. His philosophy was "WORK".

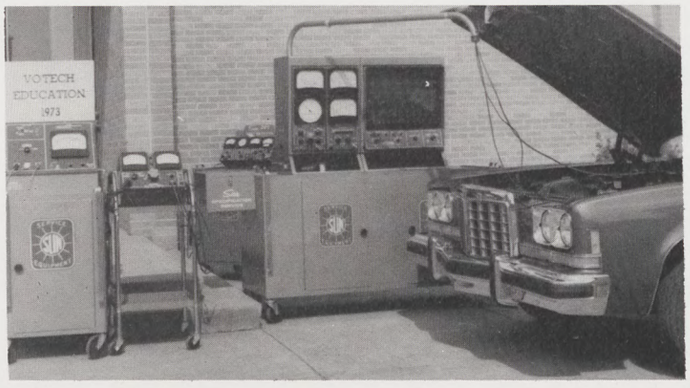

Not only has the dress of 1918 been replaced, but also has the automobiles.

Old dorms will be replaced by new ones.

The Southwest Miss. Junior College Bears had a long rugged season in football, filled with joy, heartbreak, and sadness. Even though the Bears finished with a 1-9 season, they accomplished four major goals. The first of these was to win football games. And they surprised everyone in the state when they beat a tough East Miss. team 3-0, in the first game of the season. This win broke a two year loosing streak. The second of these goals was the starting of Freshmen. The bears played many Freshmen, who gained valuable game experience. The third goal accomplished was the naming of John Ogden and Keith Davis to the All-State Junior College Team. A great honor for the school. And, finally, after his first season at the head coaching post, Floyd Davis gained the experience needed to head coach in the ranks. He will know what to expect of his new sophomores, and his interested freshmen. The 1973 season was exciting for Bear followers. The taste of that first victory, and the near wins against Northeast and Itawamba. But the "73" season is over and come next fall "look-out".

Before the season started it was said that the Bears had no talent, they would finish last in the conference standings, and would be lucky to win any games. Well a lot of words were eaten this season, and the Bears did the serving. The Bears had one of their best seasons in years. The Bears had their share of stars too, with tall, high-scoring Tyler Thompson, burning the nest with consistant 20 point games. Billy "Frog" Froechtenicht, a quick playmaker who made the team go. Sophomore leadership from Wayne Hagan, along with good play by Freshmen, Paul Hough, Lynell Matthews, John Ball and Anderson Taplin also helped the team. Coach Oliver Young built a fine team, and surprised many people, maybe even himself.

THE UNDEFEATABLE MEAT-MAMMAS

Powderpuff Action At SMJC

November 14, 1972, 7:30 P.M. at John J. Hurst stadium. Event: the first powderpuff football game. The Meat-Mammas, who were then Freshmen, put up a mighty struggle and went on to beat the Super-Sophs 12-0. The Super-Sophs were crushed that a bunch of little Freshmen could beat them, but it was too late for them.

One year later, November 13, 1973, the Meat-Mammas once again took the field. Uppermost in their minds was what had happened to the Sophomores of a year before. They were determined not to let it happen to them. After a tough, bruising game, the Meat-Mammas again were the victors with a 14-0 win over their opponent. With that victory, the Meat-Mammas set a record of 2 wins; 0 losses; and 0 ties. They also proved that they were tough be not letting opponents get a single point. To the players and coaches of the Meat-Mammas we extend our heartiest congradulations and hope they do as well inlife. To all the players, coaches, and other participants we extend our thanks for making the powderpuff game such a success.

To express a fitting tribute to Jane Goza would be impossible, for she possessed immeasurable virtues. A radiant smile was her password; a smile that never lost its brightness, even during her illness. In this smile one could see real courage, surpassed by no one.

We at Southwest Mississippi Junior College can be thankful for the opportunity we had to know Jane, for that kind of opportunity comes very seldom in life. These words are not an original tribute to Jane, but a loving repetition of the words said of her while she was living.

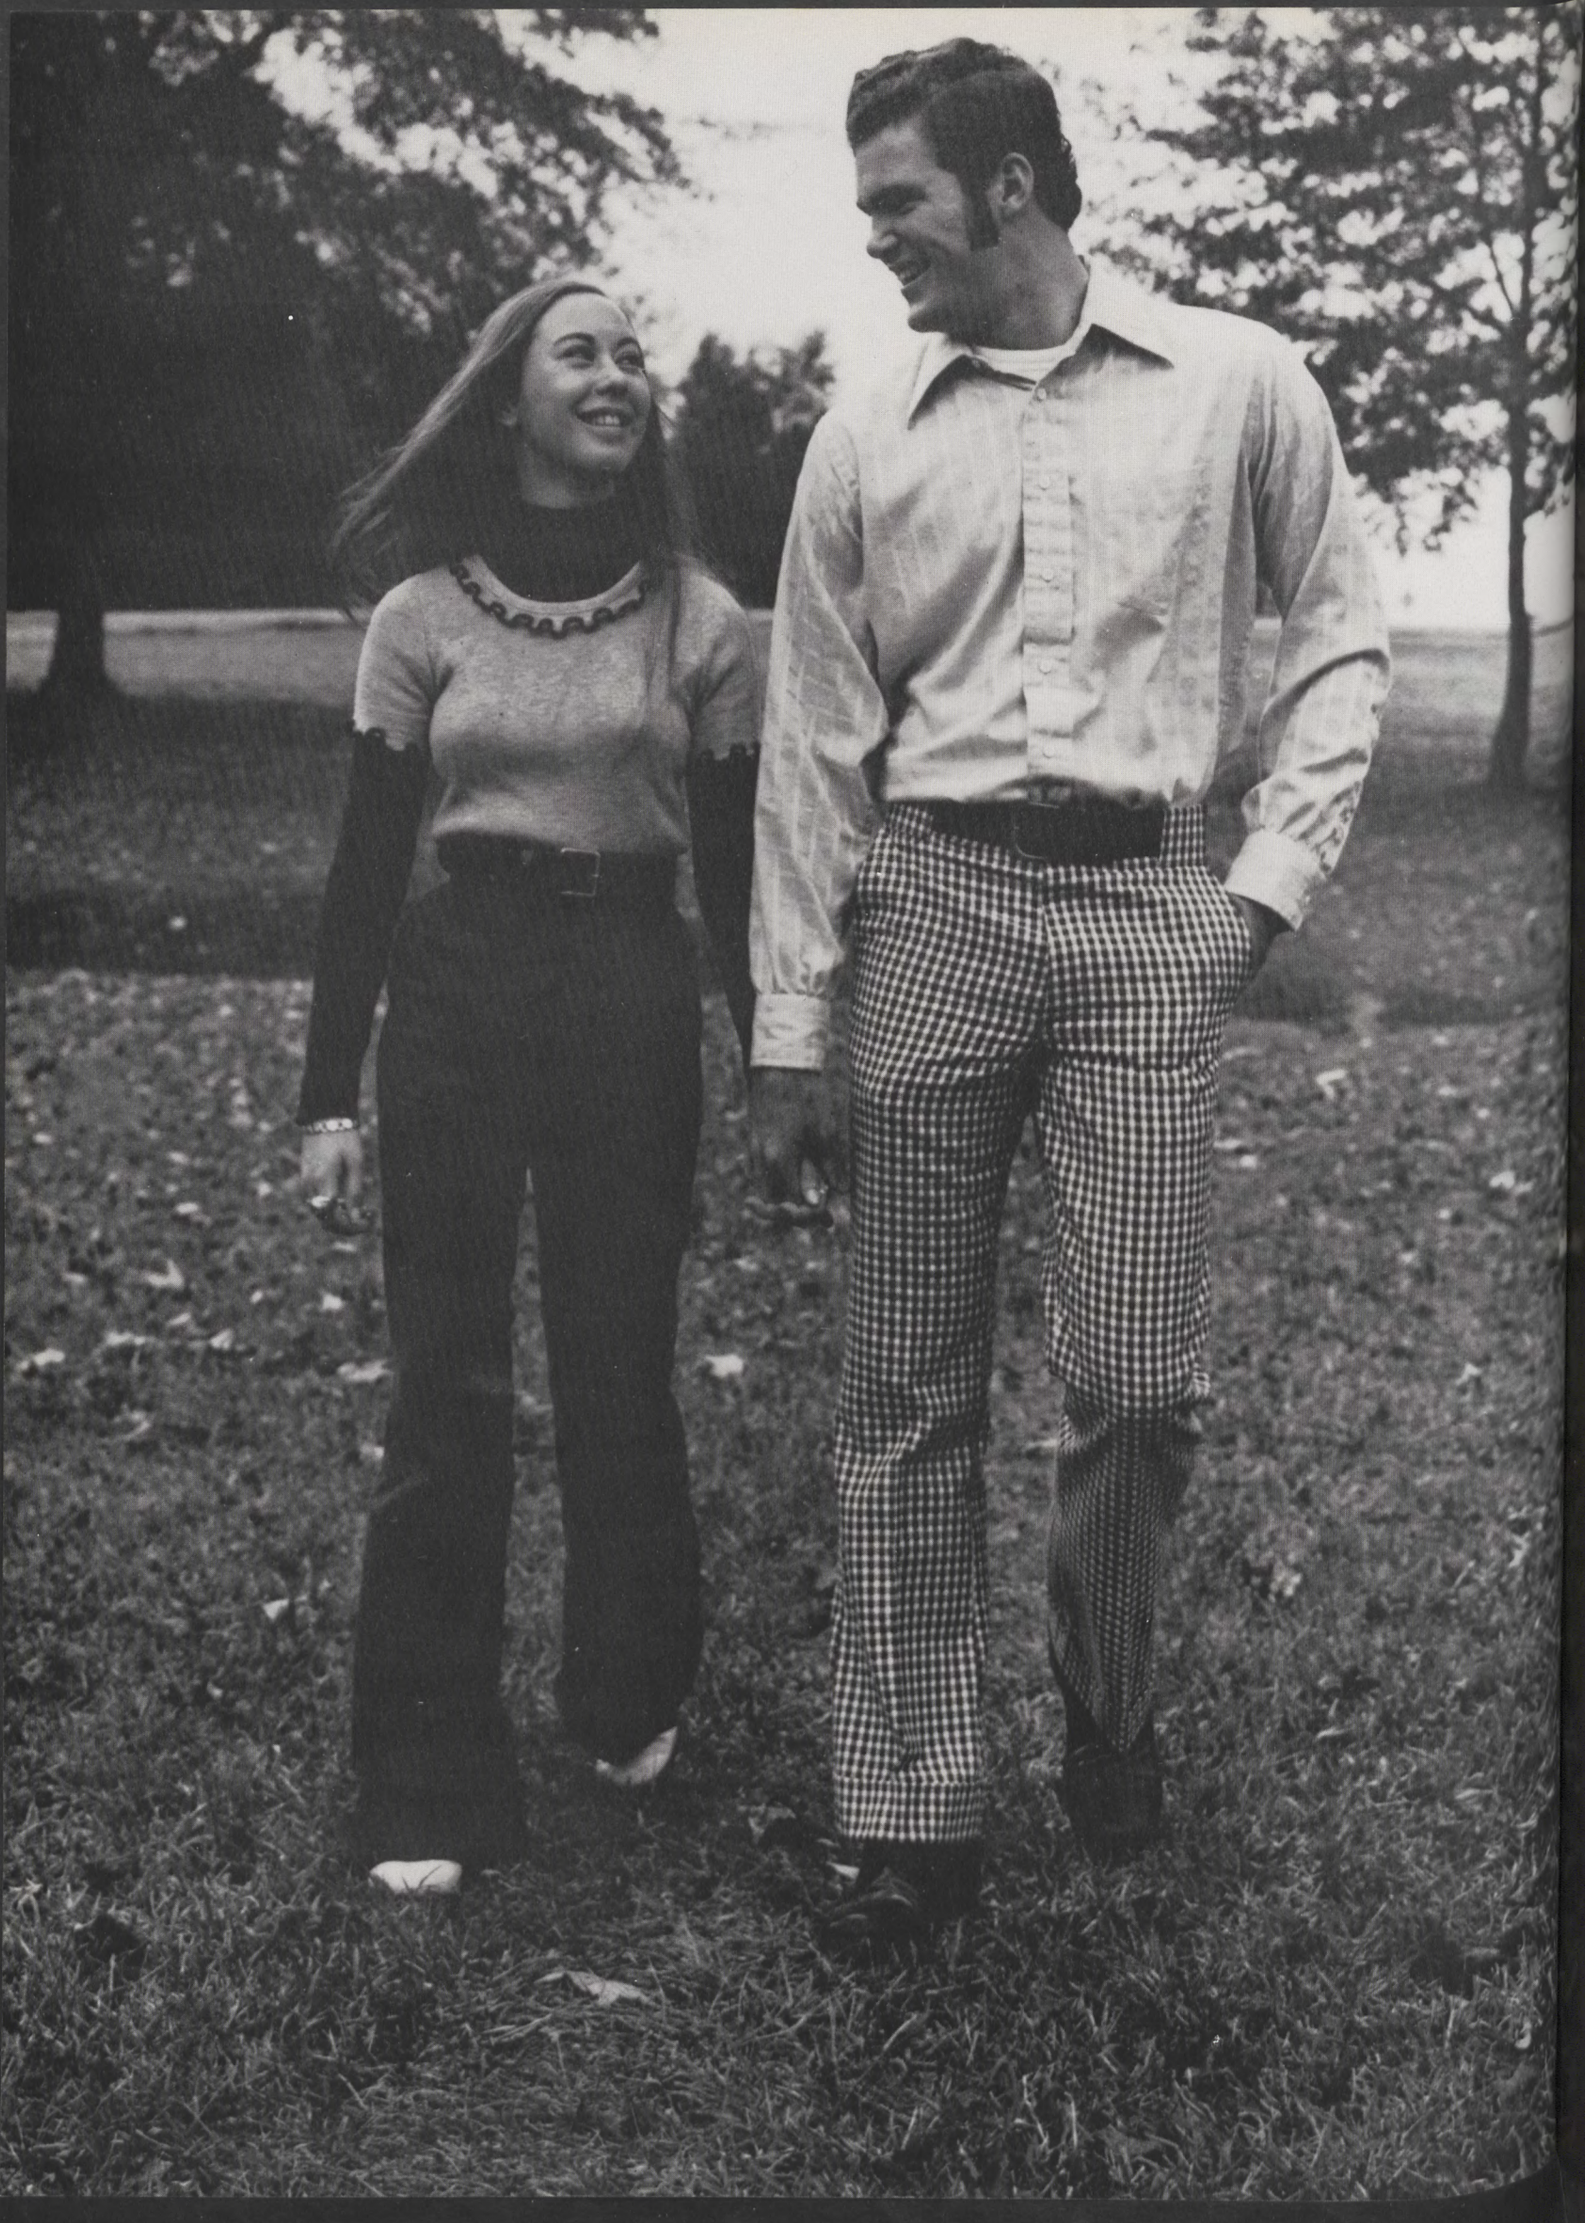

Though the physical life of Israel Garner Jr. ended abruptly on October 12, 1973, in an automobile accident, the influence of Israel will never end. Rather, it will become part of an ever-widening concept of true sportsmanship. A real sportsman he was--in the finest sense of the term. Completely committed to basketball, he exhibited matchless skill in playing the game, accruing an enviable record, and culminating in his being named Most-Valuable Player of the Year.

More important, however, than his ability to play ball was his congeniality, Israel liked everyone, and found this amicableness returned by all. He showed his teammates how to play ball; he showed his fellowman how to live.

Robert Louis Stevenson wrote: "Anyone can carry his burden however heavy until nightfall. Anyone can do his work, however hard, for one day. Anyone can live sweetly, patiently, lovingly, purely till the sun go down. And this is all life really means."

Israel Garner must have known what life really means.

PEOPLE

New Faces. Will they become new friends, or will they remain as anonymous as the leaves passing in the autumn breeze? Again, we must each make our own decision.

There is so much we can learn, not only from our teachers, but from other students. We need only take the time to listen. Each time we do, we make a new friend.

"No man is the whole of himself: his friends are the rest of him."

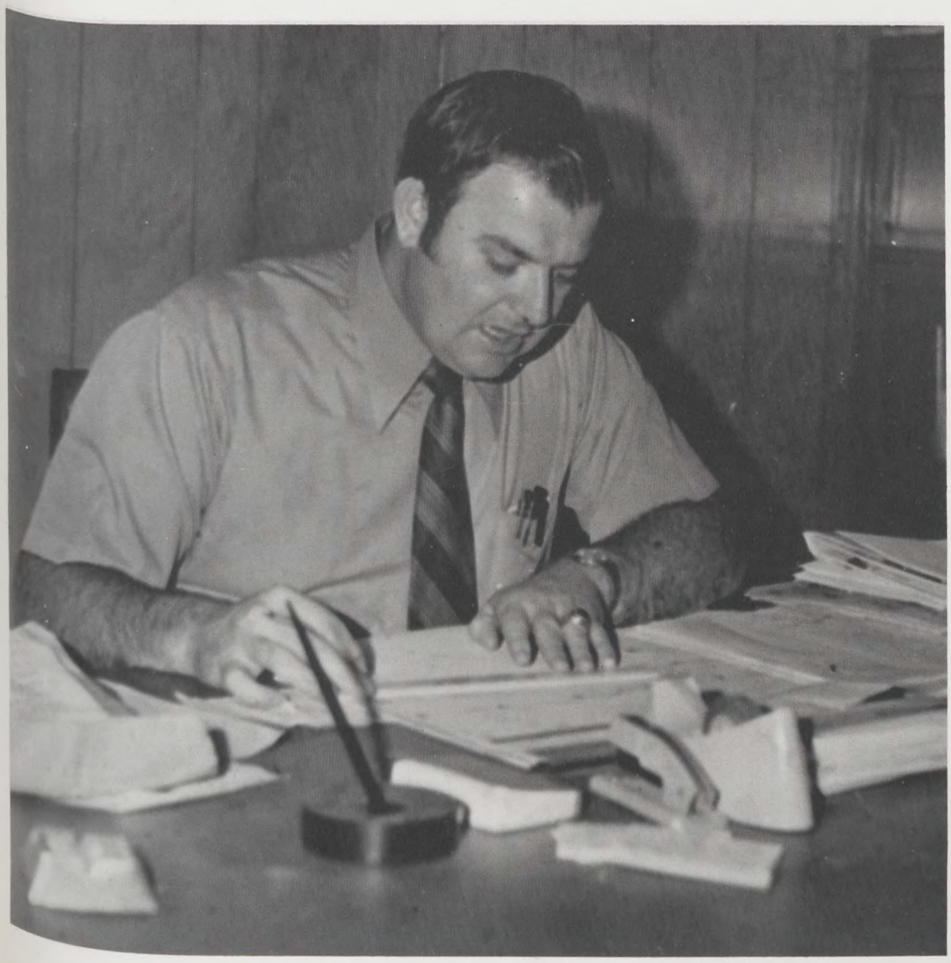

OUR PRESIDENT

The president of a college is the nucleus of the institution. He has the responsibility of seeing that everything proceeds according to plan. In addition, he must keep the lines of communication open between his office, the faculty, and the students.

The key to a good president is understanding. President Holmes has combined this quality with patience, consideration, and a great deal of hard work to do his best for SMJC.

AN ESSENTIAL PART OF SMJC

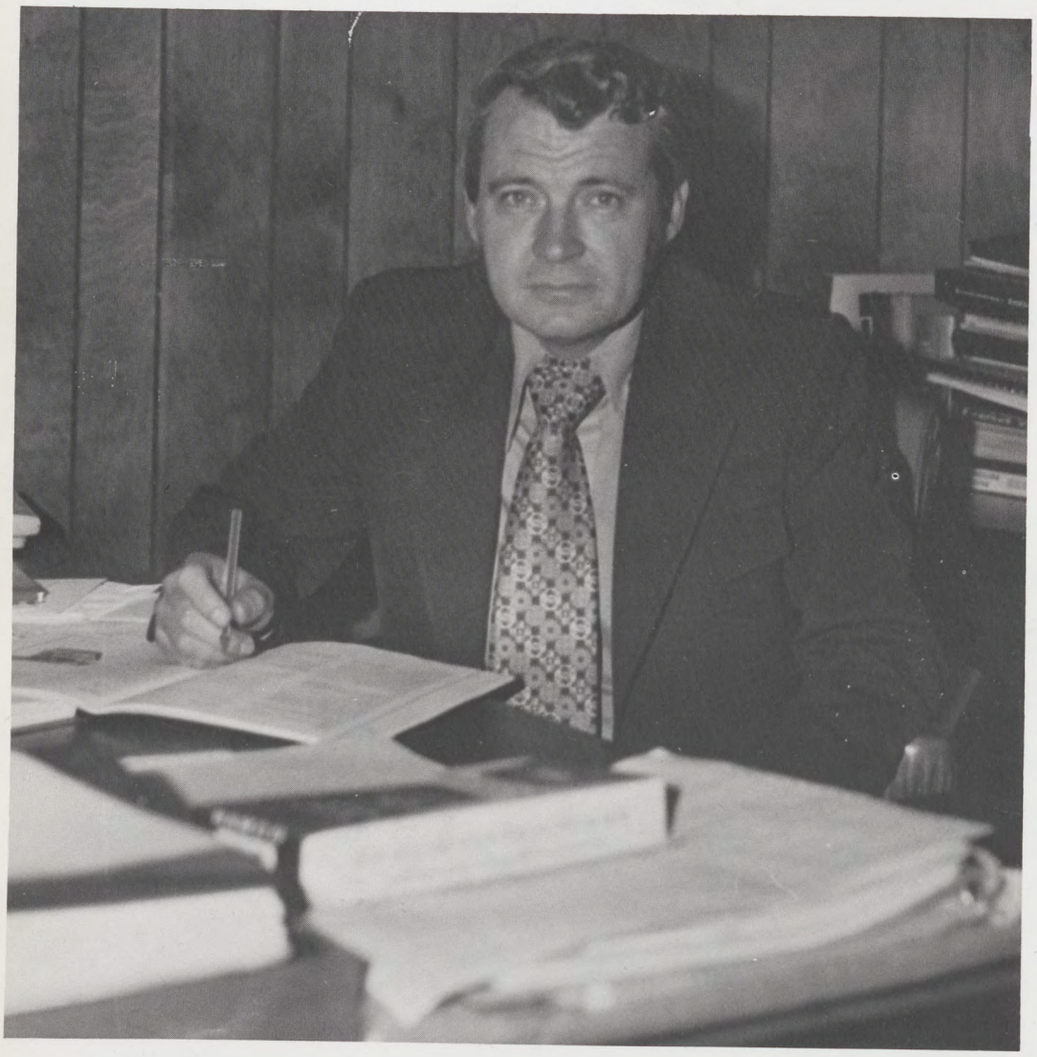

Although sometimes hard to find, our administration makes their presence felt in many ways. They can be counted on whenever we need help with classes, schedules, advice on selecting a major, or even help with a personal problem.

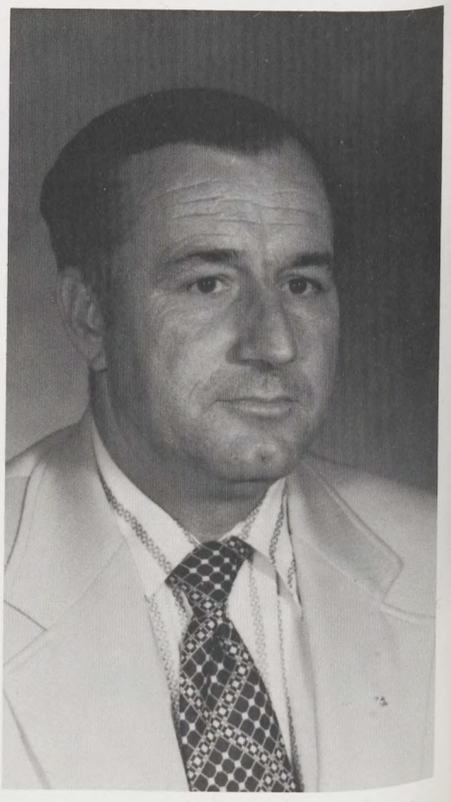

Above: Dean Miller. Left: Dean of students, Jerry Reid.

We often see these people only in their offices, busy at work behind littered desks. Even though we may not always understand their work, they are an essential part of SMJC. Without them so much of the progress that has been made in the past years would have been impossible.

Although we'll soon be parted,

we'll still be together,

bound by the things we shared

. . . the excitement of registration

. . . moving into the dorm

. . the nervousness over that first class meeting

. . . the pep rallies and the ball games

. . . the hustle and bustle of Homecoming . . .

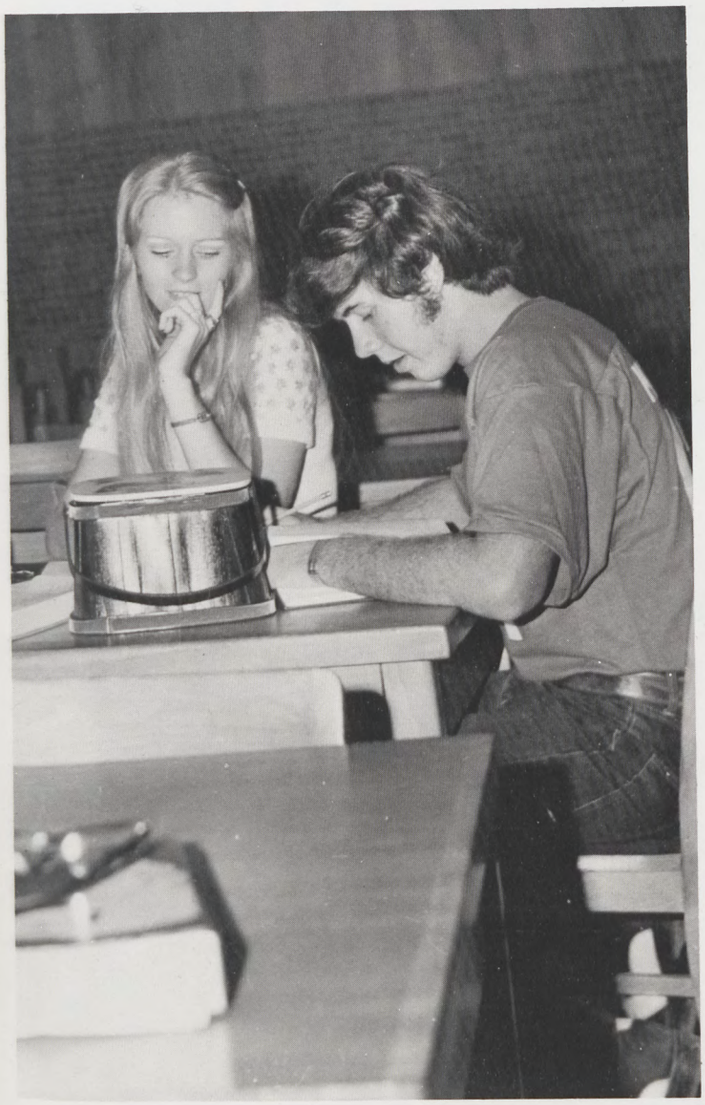

. . . the sleepless nights before exams
. . . the worry over grades and the relief
we felt when we knew that we had made it
. . . the quiet talks we had when each of us knew that we had found someone who was willing to share the heartache
as well as the joy . . .

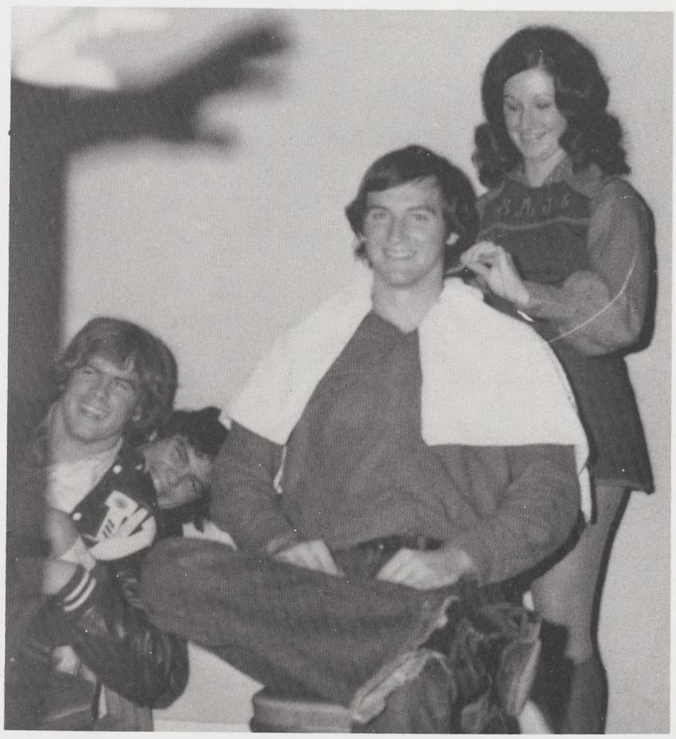

We have shared all this and much, much more.

We have shared a little of ourselves.

So, though the memory of this year may grow dim,

occasionally we will remember the things we shared and smile.

alma mater

In Southwestern Mississippi
Towering toward the sky
Proudly stand our Alma Mater
As the years go by
Forward ever be our watchword
Conquer and Prevail
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
All Southwest All Hail

Like a half-forgotten song,
filled with bitter-sweet memories,
so are our days at SMJC.
We will look back and remember a note here,
a phrase there, never the entire song.
So with many regrets and many more hopes,
we leave this campus
to learn a new song
based on the old.
